Class 4 Licensing Procedure

How to gain your Class 4 Drivers Licence

The End Result...

By being the holder of a full Class 4 licence you will be able to drive any heavy rigid vehicle that is capable of carrying loads and weighing beyond 18,000 kgs.

Step 1: Hold your Class 2 Full licence for at least 6 months or 3 months if you are over 25 years old.

Step 2: Apply for your Class 4 learners licence by going to a Driver Licensing Agent (i.e VTNZ, AA, VINZ) and completing the following:

- DL1 application form
- Evidence of identity (i.e drivers licence or passport)
- Eye sight test at the driver licensing agent, or present an optometrist certificate
- Current medical certificate
 - Not required if you have presented a medical certificate in the past 5 years
 - You can obtain a medical certificate from your doctor or medical center
 - Must be less than 60 days old

Step 3: Book the Class 4 Licence Course by scanning the QR Code, visiting the website (www.roadskills.co.nz), emailing (admin@roadskills.co.nz) or by calling (0508 ROADSKILLS).

Step 4: Attend the two-day theory training course for the Class 4 Driver License course. At the end of the training course on each day there is a Closed Book Theory Assessment.

Step 5: During the course we will arrange a date to complete the practical training and/or assessment (approx 4 hours). On successful completion a certificate is issued.

Step 6: Take the certificate to a Driver Licensing Agent to apply for your Full Class 4 Driver License. You will be issued with a Full Class 4 Temporary Paper License. The plastic license will be posted to you in due course.
