Class 5 Licensing Procedure

How to gain your Class 5 Drivers Licence

The End Result...

By being the holder of a full Class 5 licence you will be able to drive any combination vehicle that has a total combined weight over 25,000kg.

Step 1: Hold your Class 3 or 4 Full licence for at least 6 months or 3 months if you are over 25 years old.

Step 2: Study the Road Code including the Heavy Motor Vehicle section for the learner licence test. If more help is needed with the learner licence test Commercial Roadskills runs a learner licence course to help you pass, just contact us for availability.

When ready apply for your Class 5 learners licence by going to a Driver Licensing Agent (i.e VTNZ, AA, VINZ) and completing the following:

- DL1 application form
- Evidence of identity (i.e drivers licence or passport)
- Eye sight test at the driver licensing agent or present an optometrist certificate
- Current medical certificate
 - Not required if you have presented a medical certificate in the past 5 years
 - You can obtain a medical certificate from your doctor or medical center
 - Must be less than 60 days old
- Pass the Learner Licence theory test
 - Multi choice 35 question test, minimum of 33 questions correct to pass

Step 3: Book the Class 5 Licence Course by scanning the QR Code, visiting the website (www.roadskills.co.nz), emailing (admin@roadskills.co.nz) or by calling (0508 ROADSKILLS).

Step 4: Attend the two-day theory training course for the Class 5 Driver License course. At the end of the training course on each day there is a Closed Book Theory Assessment. If you have previously completed logbook training you may only be required to attend one day

Step 5: During the course we will arrange a date to complete the practical training and/or assessment (approx 4 hours). On successful completion a certificate is issued.

Step 6: Take the certificate to a Driver Licensing Agent to apply for your Full Class 5 Driver License. You will be issued with a Full Class 5 Temporary Paper License. The plastic license will be posted to you in due course.
